Current Affairs

of The Day 05/01/2022

Bringing you with the best and the latest news from all around the country, we provide the young aspirants of the country with the best news in the most concise manner, news from the most reliable and the quickest sources such as The Hindu, The Economic Times, Times of India, Indian Express, Business Standard, etc. Prepare for your government competitive exam with our help and achieve the best results in your exam, we bring you the best news in the most easy-to-read and concise manner.

• All schools and colleges to be closed due to the sudden surge in the number of Covid cases in Bangalore, the Karnataka government imposed weekend curfew to contain the Covid spread, the curfew will be in place between 10 pm and 5 am across the state, and Bangalore urban district will close all schools and colleges accept medical institutions, from January 6 except for students in class 10, 11, and 12. Karnataka logged 2,479 classes on Tuesday and 4 fatalities, the city has been logging over 1,000 cases daily since January 1, the government also issued an order that states that all offices will function five days and government secretariat will run with officials at 50% working strength.

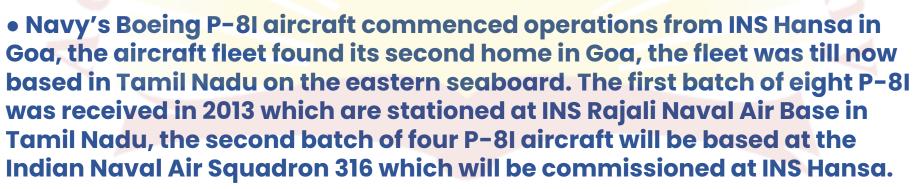

• Amul to set up a new plant in Telangana making it the largest plant in South Indian, the plant will create employment for 500, the estimated cost to build the plant is approx. Rs. 500 crores, and will witness an investment of around Rs. 300 crores in the first phase and Rs. 200 crores in the second phase. The Principal secretary industries Jayesh Ranjan and Babubhai M Patel MD of Sabarkantha district cooperative milk producers union Itd signed an MoU in the presence of the minister. The plant will be set up at a special food processing zone, the estimated capacity of the plant is around 5 lakh litres per day which is expandable to 10 lakh litres per day to manufacture value-added dairy products.

Knowledge is Power

• The largest single-site solar project in India commenced on January 3, 2022, the Azure Power Global commissioned a 600 megawatts interstate transmission system connected solar project in Rajasthan, this project will mark the country's largest owned and operated single site, the company Azure Power commissioned the project in phases. The company currently has 2,510 MW of high-performing operational solar assets across the country, the solar power generated from the project will be supplied to SECI at a tariff rate of Rs. 2.53 per kilowatt for 25 years.

• Hyderabad techies set to revolutionize the farming industry and market their produce digitally, techies turned farmers came up with solutions to farming challenges, over the next 45 days over 100 professionals in teams of 5 will work together on their allocated land parcels over each weekend till they harvest their produce. A 2 acre land at Yadavalli village in Narayanpet district has been identified for the purpose, a single team will have found IT professionals and an agriculture expert and will be given 121 sq yard. The teams will study and implement various agricultural practices and innovations.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q1. Who is the founder of Azure Power? Ans. A. Inderpreet Wadhwa (ANS) B. Ranjit Gupta C. Pawan Kumar Agrawal D. Murali Subramanian

Q2. Why did the Principal secretary industries Jayesh Ranjan and Babubhai M Patel MD of Sabarkantha district cooperative milk producers union Itd sign an MoU?

Ans. The Principal secretary industries Jayesh Ranjan and Babubhai M Patel MD of Sabarkantha district cooperative milk producers union Itd signed an MoU for a new plant in Telangana. The plant will be set up at a special food processing zone, the estimated capacity of the plant is around 5 lakh liter per day which is expandable to 10 lakh liter per day to manufacture value-added dairy products and will create employment for 500, the estimated cost to build the plant is approx. Rs. 500 crores, and will witness an investment of around Rs. 300 crores in the first phase and Rs. 200 crores in the second phase.

